

An aerial photograph of a rural landscape in Malta, showing a patchwork of green and brown agricultural fields separated by thin, light-colored lines representing roads or field boundaries. The terrain appears slightly hilly or uneven.

Sustainable Agriculture And Agro-Tourism In the Island Malta

Prepared and Delivered by
Francis Galea

Population
400,000

1921

- Superintendent of Agriculture
- Dr John Borg
- Formed the first Association
- The National Union Of The Maltese Farmers

MALTA.

REPORT
ON THE
PRESENT CONDITION
OF AGRICULTURE
IN THE
MALTESE ISLANDS

BY

F. A. STOCKDALE, C.M.G., C.B.E.

Prof. Dr.

John Berg's Bequest

MALTA,
GOVERNMENT PRINTING OFFICE.
1934

[487]

1934

- Agriculture expert
- Mr. Stockdale

• Mr. Oscar Paris

1944

Maltese Co-operative Societies

An aerial photograph of the island of Malta, showing its rugged terrain and coastline. Several blue location pins are placed across the island, with thin black lines extending from them to a list of co-operative societies on the left side of the image. The list includes dates and names of societies, such as '15th January 1947 Zabbar Farmers' and '17th January 1947 St Paul's farmers'. The background is a dark blue sky.

15th January 1947 Zabbar Farmers

17th January 1947 St Paul's farmers

21st January 1947 Zebbug Farmers

Siggiewi Farmers

Mellieha Farmers

Rabat Farmers

19th October 1947

Zabbar Farmers

St Pauls farmers

Zebbug Farmers

Siggiewi Farmers

Mellieiha Farmers

Rabat Farmers

Farmers Central
Co-operative

2005

- Safeguard the rural life

Koperattiva Rurali Manikata 2007

Heritage trail

Products

- Cappers
- Jams
- Sun Dried tomatoes
- Wine
- Honey
- Pickles
- Figs

Challenges

- Organic Farming
- Tourists Destination
- Conserving Country Side
- Sustaining Rural Economy
- Employment

A wooden signpost with handwritten text in a rural setting. The sign is made of light-colored wood and has the words 'IR', 'RAZZETT', 'TAL', and 'QASAM' written on it in dark green or black ink. The background shows a clear blue sky and a rocky, hilly landscape. A person wearing a red hat is partially visible on the left side of the frame.

IR
RAZZETT
TAL
QASAM

Thank You